The Free Range House

[Dedicated to Neurohackers, Homeworlders and all of the Alliance of Free Range People]

If you have understood that it is not so good

To stare at your TV and never dare to see

They think you’re a stupidity

If you have understood that it is not so good

To never take the chance and never learn to dance

And watch the world just passing by…

If you are free, let’s go and fly together

If you are thee, let’s go and live together

If you’re like Z, let’s go and build together

If you’re like V, let’s go and move together

To the Free Range House (x2)

If you have understood that it is not so good

To always break the rule and never go to school

You know you must improve your tool

If you have understood that it is not so good

To moan and to complain again, again and again

Just smile and you'll stop the rain yeah!

(Chorus)

Oh! They won't make it easy

You have to be ready

You won't get it freely

You mustn't be sissy

Yeah you may be young & pretty, baby

But you got no time to be lazy

Yeah you have to play it steady

But beyond the fight is the party!!

Oh come on baby you don’t have to worry…!

If you have understood that it is not so good

To much believe in me, that I’ve come back finally

Oh no, you won’t get fooled easily…

If you are free, let’s go and fly together

If you are thee, let’s go and live together

If you’re like Z, let’s go and build together

If you’re like V, let’s go and move together

If you are free, let’s go and fly together

If you are thee, let’s go and live together

In the Free Range House (x3)
